

Supporting mental health, wellness

On May 15, more than 315 women came together at the Wisconsin Club in Milwaukee in support of mental health and wellness at Rogers Memorial Hospital Foundation's Women's Gathering. "Posttraumatic stress disorder (PTSD): Finding your strength in the wake of adversity" featured Dr. Chad Wetterneck, clinical psychologist at Rogers Behavioral Health, and Kristy, PTSD and eating disorder survivor. Above, Robyn Cepek, Kelly Pemper, Kay Dudley and Theresa Starkey show their support for Rogers Memorial Hospital.

Kristin Bencivenga and Caty Schmitt.

Lisa Blazek and Kelly Frank Kemnitz take a break for a photo.

Sarah Petelinsek, Lisa Petelinsek and Cheryl Kuhlman share a smile.

Kim Rossing and Julie Ellenbecker-Lipsky raise money for Rogers Memorial Hospital.

Vicki Bopp and Sharon Legwinski pose for a photo.

Dr. Brenda Bailey and Dr. Heather Jones at the gala.

Sherie Christel-Schuster and Kim Ulrich show their support.

Jennifer Current, Mary Claire Cannestra, Katie Edwards and Natalie Strohm attend the gala supporting Rogers Memorial Hospital. The event raised just over $70,000, which will directly support spiritual care services for individuals receiving treatment at Rogers Behavioral Health.

From The FR

On the
in Wauke

90 years
June 9, 19

Summon
in the suit
community, In Wangerin,
attorney, w
court here

Lakelan

Highway
Pewaukee

was kno

farms. Th

that War

agreement

tion. Rob

plaintiff,

services.

Wangerin

ment wh

member

The

acquirin

second

Edgewo

Smith,

enginee

develop

dividin

options

the Ed

gerin

agreed

corpor

furnish

to prom

The de

engine

tural

further

and V

half a

53 y
June

A s

the

ente

ings

the

ing.

T

rat

the

by

ov

vi

w

i

A

H

S