This book is a roadmap through your grief journey. A FEW Words Of Comfort For The Grieving provides reassurance through the most difficult of trials. Stories of loss vary from death to unemployment, from childhoods erased by abuse to identity crises as life stages end, from miscarriages to health challenges. Grieving is not just the result of losing a loved one, although those stories are certainly in these pages; it can come from moving, from betrayal, from the ends of relationships, from violent experiences, and from change . . . in short, it comes from the human experience.

In this collaborative book, readers will find peace and even joy through life's struggles of denial, pain, guilt, anger, bargaining, depression, looking back, loneliness, and transition. They are treated to a year-long, personalized journey of growing closer to God at the very time when they may feel most abandoned. This book and its writers are truly the readers' companions as they heal their way forward through their grief and toward rebuilding, acceptance, and eternal hope.

A FEW Words Of Comfort For The Grieving is more than a book to simply read:

- Each devotion is followed by introspective questions to allow you to reflect on your own journey of grief.
- Inspiration quotes will encourage you as you work your way through the stages.
- Seventeen different authors share multiple grief experiences, allowing you to relate to loss of many types.
- Choose to read from front to back or focus on the area in which you most struggle.
- Choose to work your way through the devotional at your own pace.
- Most FEW authors are available to present to your ministry, group, church, or organization. Like what you read? Consider inviting one of our authors to present a teaching on her devotion(s).
